187
188 PUBLIC COMMENT – Mr. McLaughlin said that if the Board considers making a rule revision 189 such as an information form, they may want to consider that there are not very many instructors 190 teaching surveying courses and if there are a few requesting continuing education credits, and it 191 doesn't fit a rule, he said that that the continuing education credits should be considered for 192 credit anyway. He suggested being consistent in the model rules when discussing changes.
