

Bee Alert Video Overview

Video courtesy of the Los Angeles County Fire Department

This video shows a reenactment of an actual 911 call in Los Angeles County due to an Africanized honey bee stinging incident. This reenactment shows what happens to the victim and how 911 operators, police officers and fire rescue personnel responded to the incident. The video includes interviews with the first responders and reactions to what happened during the incident.