

Foods in Schools	Smart Snacks	Food Fundraisers	Exempt Food Fundraisers
Are individual, ready-to-eat foods and beverages sold outside of the Federal Breakfast and Lunch Programs.	X	X	X
Are considered competitive foods.	X	X	X
Must meet the nutrition standards for competitive foods.	X	X
Compliant foods sold by School Food Services on campus at any time during the day.	X
Compliant foods sold in vending machines, school stores, and snack bars and not a ready-to-eat combination food of meat/meat alternates and grain products and can be sold at any time during the day.	X
Compliant foods sold on any school day, 30 minutes after the last meal period.		X
Food-based sales may occur on any day during the school year calendar.	X	X
Activities during which money or its equivalent (tickets, coupons, and similar items) is exchanged for the purchase of a food product that supports a school-related club.		X	X
Must be authorized according to district school board policy and must be approved by the school principal or designee.		X	X
Do not meet the nutrition standards for competitive foods.			X
Can be sold only on designated days, 30 minutes after the last meal period.			X
Must be granted special exemption and not exceed maximum number of school days sold per school year.			X
District school board must maintain calendar records documenting occurrence.			X

* School campus is all areas of the property under the jurisdiction of the school that are accessible to students during the school day.

* School day is considered the period from midnight before, to 30 minutes after the end of the official school day.